Systems and Methods for Integrating Light

ABSTRACT

A light integrating system includes at least one total internal reflection (TIR) prism and a light integrating device disposed to collect and homogenize light exiting from the TIR prism.